

Project Profile

Ben and Jane Norton Culinary Arts Center
at Lorain County Community College | Elyria, OH
Institutional Building

Stonewood Architectural Interior Panels were used on the interior ceiling over the main entry and monumental staircase. Stonewood Architectural Panels are available in a wide selection of colors and unique designs.

Opened in the fall of 2012, the new 37,580 sq. ft. Culinary Arts & Convergent Digital Arts Joint Facility at Lorain County Community College houses three teaching kitchens, a dining lab, multi-use spaces, and much more. The project used Stonewood Architectural Panels to carry the stunning, natural wood aesthetic from the exterior soffit into the interior ceiling over the main entry and monumental staircase. This project is seeking LEED certification and has received a 2013 Honorable Mention Award from the Cleveland Chapter of the American Institute of Architects for Achievement of Excellence in Architectural Design.

Stonewood Architectural Exterior Panels were used to create a stunning natural wood aesthetic. Stonewood Panels are proudly Manufactured in America with a short 3-week production lead time. Project design is by Bialosky + Partners Architects.
